JUDGES - Piano

Jonathan Reynard Kristono

Jonathan Reynard Kristono is a Melbourne-based pianist, composer, and educator with international performance and teaching experience. He has appeared at the Melbourne Recital Centre's Now or Never festival and composed original works for the Indonesian musical Temulawak, staged at St Kilda Theatre in 2025. Holding a Licentiate of the London College of Music (LLCM) in Piano, Jonathan currently teaches students across Victoria, preparing them for AMEB, Trinity, and ABRSM exams.

Yiyun Gu

Yiyun Gu is an Australian pianist and music educator with a broad professional career, highly regarded for her work with advanced students. She holds a Master of Music from the University of Melbourne and has refined her performance artistry through advanced training in the UK and Italy. A finalist in the Australian National Piano Award, she has performed at major venues and festivals, including multiple recitals at the Melbourne Recital Centre and the Port Fairy Spring Music Festival.

JUDGES - Strings

Helena Wang

Helena is a professional violinist and educator with extensive orchestral, chamber, and solo experience. She holds a Bachelor of Music (Honours), AMusA (distinction) and has performed as Casual First Violin with the Queensland Symphony Orchestra and as a core member of Camerata, Queensland's Chamber Orchestra.

Her performances include appearances with the Australian Youth Orchestra, solo and chamber concerts at the Bangalow Music Festival and SummerSalt Festival, and international performances with the University of Queensland Symphony Orchestra in Xi'An, China.

Suzannah Calvert

Suzannah is a Melbourne-based professional violinist and educator who began her musical journey at age four. She trained at the College of the Arts Secondary School and holds a Bachelor of Music, building a career that spans classical performance, contemporary music, and teaching at some of Melbourne's most prestigious schools.

Specializing in electric violin, Suzannah has performed for high-profile events including the Women's FIFA World Cup, Melbourne Cup Carnival and Melbourne Fashion Week.

JUDGES - Drums

Rachel Trainor

Rachel Trainor is a New Zealand-born, Melbourne-based drummer, vocalist and multi-instrumentalist. After studying music at University of Otago in Dunedin, she has since studied with Dave Elitch and Benny Greb.

Rachel has performed and toured with Stephanie Lake's Manifesto, Highwire Entertainment's Rebel and The Defiant, and was head musician at Dracula's Cabaret Melbourne. Her session and live credits include Amanda Palmer, The Merindas, Die Roten Punkte, Coda Chroma, and her solo project Nightheyes.

Campbell Phillips

Campbell Phillips is a Melbourne-based drummer and educator, founder of D<sup>2</sup>Drumline, and Drumline Director for the Victorian State Schools Spectacular.

He has performed with the Top Secret Drum Corps, Blue Devils International Corps, and collaborated with artists including What So Not and the Melbourne Symphony Orchestra. Campbell is a specialist educator and an international artist for Mapex Drums, Zildjian Cymbals, Evans Drumheads, and Promark Sticks.

JUDGES - Guitar

Anthony Mastrullo

Anthony Mastrullo is a Melbourne-based guitarist with over a decade of professional experience, performing and composing across blues, ragtime, jazz, and rock styles. As both a solo artist and collaborator, he's shared stages with guitar legend Tommy Emmanuel, and toured internationally in Japan & Vietnam. A graduate of Box Hill Institute with a Bachelor of Music (Jazz/Contemporary Performance), Anthony's work blends virtuosic technique with jazz-influenced expression. He currently leads the jazz fusion group PDBH and performs widely as a session musician across Melbourne.

Fiona Steele

Fiona Steele is a Melbourne-based singer, songwriter, and guitarist with over two decades of guitar study. She performs nationally through her solo folk-rock project FJ Steele and as part of the indie folk duo GraceJean, and has collaborated with artists including Ruth Hazleton, Nat Vazer, The Maes, and Hayley Mary (The Jezabels).

Fiona's experience spans intimate folk venues, musical theatre orchestra pits, and large festival arenas. She holds a Bachelor of Music (Performance – Classical Guitar) from Monash University and is leading educator in guitar performance and composition.
